About Gratton Infrared Services

Gratton Infrared Services Inc. is a nationally incorporated independent dedicated infrared thermal imaging consulting and evaluation services company based in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. We provide local, regional and national infrared thermographic and Energy Management related services , conducting Infrared Inspections, Ultrasonic Leak Detection audits and evaluations and producing professional customized reports for our commercial, industrial, residential, municipal and institutional clients.

Gratton Infrared Services is dedicated to providing our clients with high-quality, customer-focused infrared thermal imaging services . We strive for excellence in the infrared thermal imaging industry and strive to provide the best customer service, with superior field work and reports. Our inspectors are Flir (ITC) trained professionals with mandatory continuing education in the infrared thermography industry.

Affiliations

What is infrared thermography?

Gratton Infrared Services thermally scans, inspects, evaluates and produces customized reports for a wide range of commercial, industrial, residential, municipal and institutional clients. We specialize in heat loss and energy assessments; infrared building envelope surveys; energy audits; equipment inspections; reserve fund studies; property condition assessments; lighting retrofits; indoor air quality testing; infrared roof moisture surveys; water, moisture and leak inspections; infrared electrical inspections ; CMU block wall scans; solar roof audits; infrared mechanical inspections; home inspections

; as well as infrared predictive maintenance services
. In addition, we offer insurance inspections and infrared data centre inspections.

Trust and reliability, experienced know-how, superior customer service, and delivery of customer value are the four directions that guide Gratton Infrared Services Inc.